Dedication	This award is presented to pay tribute to the founder Director of Jubilee institutions for his commitment to develop a healthcare missionary organisation in Thrissur, farsightedness for setting up a poor man's hospital with super specialty, developing a healthcare culture of service with a mission of "Transforming Lives with Love" and to remember him generations after generations.

Monsignore Mathew Muringathery is the founder Director of Jubilee Mission Hospital of Trichur Archdiocese in Kerala. His dedicated and tireless service transformed the small dispensary started in 1951 into a hospital with four rooms and 20 beds, two retired part-time doctors and two nurses. This was the only private hospital in Thrissur at that time. Msgr. Muringathery was born in Velur of Thrissur district in the year 1902 and ordained in 1929. He was in pastoral ministry until appointed as the Director of the Sacerdotal Silver Jubilee Memorial Hospital of the then Bishop of Thrissur Mar George Alapatt. Msgr Mathew Muringathery nourished Jubilee Mission Hospital until his retirement in the year 1988. He slept in God in the year 1994. Now this Hospital is a 1500 bedded one under Jubilee Mission Hospital Trust. Medical College, Nursing College & School, Research Centre, Ayurveda Hospital and Allied Health Science College are also functioning under the Trust.
